URETHANE

Zenith Cutter offers a range of highly reliable urethane products for corrugated printing equipment, die cutters and other packaging machinery to meet the various demands of the market.

DIE CUTTING ANVIL COVER

The unique urethane formulation is able to withstand the hardest applications and extend the duration of the anvil cover to maximum wear.

Our well mold technique provides a smooth surface for die cutting. The solid steel backing eliminates the soft spot over the keyway of the anvil cover for a better cutting quality.

Manufactured with durable TDI esters for maximum tear resistance and low resilience. Zenith Cutter blankets install easily and wear longer than current alternatives.

We offer both knuckle type and close bar type design options, as well as single and double wide versions.
